

Beyond 2025: A New Climate Multilateralism?

COP30 Official Side Event –Concept Note

Date & Time: Tuesday November 11th, 16:45–18:15

Venue: Side Event Room 8, Blue Zone, Belém, Brazil

Organisers: Centre for Multilateral Negotiation (CEMUNE) · The Energy and Resources Institute (TERI) · Transparency International (TI) · The Climate Reality Project (CRP)

High-Level Opening

Duration	Segment	Speaker	Key Focus
5 mins	Welcome & Overview	Huw Davies (CEMUNE)	Welcome, introduce title and objectives; outline session structure and Q&A process.
10 mins	Impulse by UNFCCC Secretariat	Cecilia Kinuthia Njenga	UNFCCC perspective on transparency, ethics and innovation in multilateral governance.

Panel Discussion

Duration	Speaker	Organisation	Key Focus
5 mins	Huw Davies	CEMUNE	Frame guiding question – “How can multilateralism deliver solutions for the climate crisis beyond 2025?”
10 mins	Maíra Martini	Transparency International	Integrity, ethics and transparency as pillars for effective and accountable climate governance.
10 mins	Dr. Shailly Kedia	TERI	Expanding global climate governance to multi-scalar issues and operationalising CBDR-RC; inputs from WSDS-Act4Earth.
10 mins	Ethan Spaner	The Climate Reality Project	Leveraging Presidency roles to strengthen multilateralism and realise climate justice.

Interactive Q&A (30 min total)

Closing (30 min total)